

Trinity Christian School

Philosophy of Literature Education

Students have access to and are exposed to good literature throughout their grammar school years. The school library as well as the class room libraries abounds with good books. Students will be expected to read a large variety and quantity of books while at Trinity. We seek to teach students to be discerning readers, loving that which is true, beautiful and good.